CASE CALLED FOR STATUS CONFERENCE VIA VTC.

The Court authorized the following substitution: Attorney Juan Matos for Attorney Laura Maldonado, The Court was informed the status of the case.

- Government advised that general discovery was provided. AUSA Alum informed that Motion for Protective order was filed at DE 85. Counsel also informed that discovery in this case is voluminous.
- AUSA Alum will coordinate meeting with counsel to proffer the evidence.
- As to co-defendant #5, government advised that he was arrested in Western District of Texas and is pending to be brought to this jurisdiction.
- Attorney Bonini advised of the pending Motion at DE 94. The Court provided until January 10, 2023 for the government to reply.
- The parties request additional time to review voluminous discovery.

The Court made a finding that the Speedy Trial remains tolled in the interest of justice which outweighs the best interest of the public and the defendants under 18 U.S.C. Sec.
